Crusaders Junior Girls capture County Cup

F. G. Miller Crusaders captured the Junior High Girls SPAA Basketball title last Tuesday with a 54 - 41 win over Glen Avon Panthers, with a very excited home town crowd cheering them on to victory.

The Crusaders' chance at victory seemed slim in the semi final, when Erica Nielsen was taken out of the game with an ankle injury. Their Ashmont opposition took full advantage of this opportunity to tie the game, sending it into overtime. Erica came back for the overtime period and was a strong contributing factor in their 59-50 win, with four points. "All of us were very determined to win. I just hid the pain," the guard / post player said. "We knew we could do it, we have beat them by 20 to 30 points during the season." The Crusaders were also without top scorer Krystal Yake for much of the game, after she was fouled out.

Glen Avon, who defeated Racette in the other semi final, took an early lead in the final, with the score 24 - 15 in their favor after the first half. FGM Coach Dalane Huber changed her defence around for the second half, and, "with Krystal Yake's shooting a big factor, we caught up and pulled ahead" to win 54-41, Huber said. Krystal scored 26 points in the final.

The SPAA championship was the end of "a pretty successful season. We won all our league games, and only lost to Marwayne in an exhibition game and to the Bonnyville Centralized School in the final of the Racette tournament," Huber said. "The girls worked hard all year, and are good to work with. To win the County Cup was a really nice way to finish the year off."

Crusaders captain Jennifer Kadutski said Wednesday's championship game was "a good effort by everybody, whether they were cheering on the bench or playing out there." The high spot of the afternoon, she said, came in the Ashmont game. "It was pretty tense when Erica was hurt. I had to go in to shoot the foul shots and I missed. The overtime was the best." Krystal Yake agreed, that "cheering in the overtime" was her favorite part. She was also very impressed with "the good support from our school and the parents," who were all out there cheering.

Chamber gets back on track - and busy

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has been resuscitated.

A good turnout of 15 members was in attendance bright and early on March 6 to elect the balance of the 1996 executive and discuss ways of bringing more people out to the meetings.

A unanimous decision was reached to try holding one meeting per month, on the first Wednesday at noon. Some members find it very difficult to leave their businesses at noon hour, while others have to close in order to attend. The executive will also hold one meeting per month to discuss urgent matters.

Vicki Brooker accepted the nomination to become the new president, while Curt Svendsen volunteered to act as recording secretary.

Dave Yake and new vice-president Gloria Pundick will serve as the Membership Committee, and will get their campaign underway in the near future.

Barb Croteau will once again head the Merchants Committee, and has set up a meeting with the Elk Point Auto Club on March 12 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss plans for the annual car show.

Anne Himschoot of St. Paul/Smoky Lake Business and Community Development Corporation reported that between 125 and 150 people attended the Entrepreneurs Showcase last week. She brought thanks from George Rife to all those who participated and attended the very successful event, and complimented Elk Point on their hospitality.

Good response for Elk Point producers' first annual bull sale

Two Elk Point purebred livestock operations, Spring Creek Red Angus and Lazy H Simmentals, drew an excellent crowd to their first annual joint bull sale last Thursday.

The Fair Grounds Arena was packed with buyers and browsers, who enjoyed a magnificent roast beef lunch prior to the sale. Promptly at 1 p.m., auctioneer Steve Doran climbed up to his vantage point high above the crowd to introduce Bernard Boeckmann of Spring Creek Red Angus and Chris Havener and family of Lazy H Simmentals.

Fifteen Red Angus bulls, including a 3-year-old whose sons also sold, went for an average of $2100, with the highest priced animal, Red Spring Creek Impact 2E, bringing $2700. Sixteen Simmentals brought an average of $1928, with the highest selling bull of the afternoon, PHY Pilot RHY 75E, selling to Dan Richards of Sexsmith for an excellent price of $3600.

Six breeders contributed pens of open commercial heifers to the sale, and brought prices ranging from $610 per head for two packages of Red Angus cross to $825 for high percentage Simmental crossbreds.

Bulls from the sale will be going as far away as Water Valley, AB, Sexsmith, AB and Hafford, SK, as well as to more local destinations such as Mallaig, Clandonald, St. Paul, Vermilion, Lloydminster, Ashmont and St. Lina. There were also a number of Elk Point buyers.

Teen talent competition just totally terrific

The music styles preferred by area teens goes way beyond rock and country, to include everything from rhythm and blues to pop to bluegrass. All these styles were portrayed in the showcase presented by fifteen tremendously talented individuals and groups at the 1996 Youth Talent Quest last Saturday evening.

Last year's Talent Quest runner up was back both individually and as part of a group. Once again, Nathan Brown of Dewberry astounded the crowd with his talents in the R & B department, with a solo, "Remember The Time," winning him another second prize this year. It was when he combined his talents with those of his brother Jeremy and a friend, Jason White of Lloydminster, to form a group called "The Sound of Color" that they captured the top honors of the night, with a flawlessly executed R&B number, "Nobody Knows It But Me."

Along with cash prizes and gift certificates, the two top acts won the opportunity to compete at Edmonton Northlands in July in the next level of Youth Talent Quest, from which the winner goes on to US competition.

The evening provided entertainment for all musical tastes, from original country-flavored songwriters Travis Pankiw, Elk Point, and Candace Czuroski, Glendon, to up-tempo gospel piano stylings of Jacelyn Jagessar of Bonnyville, to bluegrass fiddle from Gina Fleming of Dewberry, to the extraordinary hard rock provided by "Frances:" Clifton Cross, Terry Dion, Alex Dion and Blake Quinney of Frog Lake.

More country vocals came from Amber Church of Glendon, Jenny Quinney of Frog Lake, Pam Jabush of Elk Point and Daleen Gunderson of Heinsburg, while Lyanne Dickner of Fahler, AB, Wendy Wood of Bonnyville, and The Blon-Ts, Tanya Bowman and Tammy Leaman, Dewberry, offered pop selections. Rhythm 100%, Iron River's Tammy Kondro, Daisy Dukewich and Nicole Dubeau, added an energetic dance number.

Judges Val Burns, Irma MacPherson and Kevin Faryna

definitely had a lot of talent to choose from, and a difficult task to determine the winners. Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening was Tanya Ryckman of CHLW Radio.

The Talent Quest was sponsored by Elk Point Midget Thunder, and was coordinated by Dee Pankiw.

Yesterday... today.... tomorrow

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry, two days which should be kept free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is YESTERDAY with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. YESTERDAY has passed forever beyond our control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back YESTERDAY. We cannot undo a single act we performed, we cannot erase a single word we said... YESYERDAY is gone.

The other day we should not worry about is TOMORROW with its possible adversaries, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. TOMORROW is also beyond our immediate control.

TOMORROW'S sun will rise, either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds — but it will rise. Until it does, we have no stake in TOMORROW for it is as yet unborn.

This leaves only one day.... TODAY! Any person can fight the battle of just one day. It is only when you and I add the burdens of those two awful eternities... YESTERDAY and TOMORROW that we break down.

It is not the experience of TODAY that drives men mad — it is remorse or bitterness for something which happened yesterday and the dread of what TOMORROW may bring.

LET US THEREFORE, LIVE BUT ONE DAY AT A TIME.

Shamrocks, saints and snakes

By Rev. Sam Donaldson
Elk Point Community Church

Next Sunday is "Paddy's Day" again. This is an event when everyone wants to be Irish. A time when green is the favorite color and even the coffee becomes Irish.

St. Patrick is our Patron Saint. We are families with many stories about this person, but what is truth and what is legend?

Patrick was born in the north of England around 388 A.D. At the age of sixteen he was captured by a band of Irish raiders and brought to Ireland as a slave.

For six years he herded pigs on Slemish mountain in County Antrim. He then escaped and headed to Wicklow where he got a job as a dog handler on a ship bound for Gaul. Patrick was now a free man. In 432 A.D. he returned to Ireland as a missionary. These are true historical facts.

Legend tells us he had a sister, Lilliput, who was enslaved with him. She was beaten to death by her owners. That he had siblings is true, but that Lilliput existed can not be proven.

When Patrick was teaching the pagan Irish about the Trinity, he used the three leafed shamrock to demonstrate the three persons in the one Godhead. Now the shamrock is the national emblem. Whether this is fact or fiction, we don't know.

There was a time when Ireland had its share of snakes. The story tells us that the High King of Ireland asked the Druid priest to banish the snakes from the island. They put their occult powers to work but the snakes were as stubborn as the people and they refused to go.

The High King then sent for Patrick to do the job. He obliged, not by banishing the snakes from the Island but, by turning them into rivers. Thus Ireland has been guaranteed abundant fresh water ever since that event. Is this fact or fiction? Depends upon the amount and quality of the "moonshine."

During his lifetime, Patrick saw the Irish nation evangelized, a church established that survived the Dark Ages and is alive today.

On the 17th of March, 461 A.D. the Irish saint died. His bones were interred at Downpatrick by John O'Coreacey in the 12th Century A.D. His grave site is visited by thousands of people of all nationalities, each year.

Diabetes - control is the key to health

By Shelley Miller-Hertes, Registered Dietician
Elk Point Health Centre

Diabetes is a chronic (life long) disease in which your body either cannot produce enough insulin or cannot properly use the insulin it does produce. Four to six percent of Canadians are affected by diabetes, 90 percent of which have non-insulin dependent diabetes.

The most important goal in diabetes management is to control blood glucose levels in the normal range, 4-8 mmol/L. Diet, exercise and a reduction in fat and cholesterol intake are necessary to control or prevent the complications of diabetes. Complications include blindness, heart attacks and strokes, kidney disease and foot problems possibly resulting in amputation.

The Elk Point Health Centre recognizes that many people have difficulty controlling their diabetes, and consequently we have developed a diabetes education program to give you the information you need to take care of your diabetes. The program provides you with information on what diabetes is, meal planning, blood glucose monitoring, exercise, reducing fat and cholesterol in your diet, the complications of diabetes, medications, footcare, travelling with diabetes, and alcohol and diabetes.

We will be offering this program starting in May. Contact Barb Kaufman at the Elk Point Health Centre for more information.

Saluting our many fine mystery writers

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

One of the most popular genres of fiction today is the mystery novel and I am a big fan (as all you other mystery fans know). In the April issue of Canadian Living, Peter Gzowski writes of this appreciation for Canada's fine mystery writers and I am in wholehearted agreement that there is a lot of great murder and mayhem being published in Canada.

Although none of the following are by Canadian authors, they are by a couple of my favorite mystery writers.

Anne Perry writes two separate detective series, one featuring William Monk and the other with Thomas and Charlotte Pitt. The Face of a Stranger is the first novel featuring William Monk. When Monk wakes up in a hospital he has no memory of who he is. This makes it difficult when he is assigned to investigate the murder of a Crimean war hero while hiding his amnesia from the people around him.

Monk is back with nurse Hester Latterly and attorney Oliver Rathbone in Defend and Betray. An esteemed general is killed at an elegant dinner party and his beautiful wife confesses to murder, even though it could mean the gallows.

In Cardington Crescent, womanizing aristocrat George March is found dead over his morning coffee and his elegant family seeks to quiet the scandal by accusing his widow, Emily, of the murder. Unfortunately for the March family, the accused is the sister of Charlotte Pitt and she and her husband take on the case of discovering the truth and clearing Emily's name.

Lawyer Christopher Paget finds himself on trial for murder when the estranged husband of his associate and lover, Terri Peralta, is found dead of an apparent suicide in Eyes of a Child by Richard North Patterson.

Star Trek fans can check these two new titles:

The crew of the Enterprise are testing a new saucer section and must fight for their lives when hostile forces seize control of the saucer and turn it against the Enterprise in Rogue Saucer from Star Trek: The Next Generation.

Commander Sisko and his crew uncover art treasures stolen centuries before by the Supreme Ruler of the planet Jibet as well as the Supreme Ruler himself, preserved in cryogenic suspension, and these discoveries spark unrest on Jibet in The Long Night from Star Trek: Deep Space Nine.
